BCH 339N. Systems Biology and Bioinformatics.

Restricted to biochemistry majors. Understanding how the cell works as a system with emphasis on the methods used to gather and analyze data and develop/test models of systems level data. Three lecture hours a week for one semester.
Prerequisite: Biochemistry 339F or Chemistry 339K with a grade of at least C-.