
Designed for students pursuing a degree option in Marine and Freshwater Science. In-depth introduction to physical, chemical, geological, and biological processes in marine systems. Three lecture hours a week for one semester. Offered on the letter-grade basis only. Prerequisite: Biology 311D and Chemistry 302 or 302H.