Friday, January 10, 2014

Peter O'Donnell Jr. Building \(POB\) 2.302, Avaya Auditorium

Sign-in 7:30 a.m. – 8:00 a.m.

Attendees must sign in at the beginning of the morning session and at the beginning of the afternoon session to receive credit for participating and to receive a completion certificate. No exceptions will be made.

Purpose

Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR) training is part of an effort by the University of Texas at Austin to provide undergraduate and graduate students, postdoctoral fellows, and faculty who require the training with superior educational opportunities for professional growth. This training has been developed to increase your awareness of ethical issues that may occur while conducting research. At the end of this training, you will have acquired skills that will help you identify ethical dilemmas and resources available to you to help you.
