The College of Natural Sciences Newsletter is designed to serve CNS students. It is delivered online every Sunday.

Dean Kopp’s weekly email includes a link to access the newsletter, as well.

Items in BLUE are new;
Items in RED are last chance.

If you would like to submit news to CNS Newsletter, send the information to cnsnewsletter@austin.utexas.edu. Include a contact person phone number and email, date or deadline, write in complete sentences, text must be fewer than 150 words.
Submit by 11:59pm Friday to be included in that week’s newsletter.

Academic Announcements

1. CNS Town Hall
   Wednesday, February 5th; WEL 1.120; 5pm

   Attend the College of Natural Sciences Student Town Hall with Dean of Undergraduate Education, Dr. Sacha Kopp discussing first-year CNS programs, orientation to campus, and advising.

2. Sanger Learning Center Presentations
   Tuesday, Feb 4th and Wednesday, Feb 5th; 5-6pm; JES A309

   RSVP
   utdirect.utexas.edu/apps/ugs/my/events

   Study Smarter, Not Harder
   Tuesday, February 4 • 5-6 p.m. • JES A309 Monday, February 10 • 5-6 p.m. • JES A309 Tuesday, February 18 • 5-6 p.m. • JES A309

   Studying shouldn’t feel like basic training yet sometimes it seems like it would take a few good students to get it done. That’s because “studying” is not a single act. This program helps you learn about the steps of the study cycle, and discover how to engage in meaningful, active learning to achieve the results you want in class

   Time & Procrastination
   Wednesday, February 5 • 5-6 p.m. • JES A309 Tuesday, February 11 • 5-6 p.m. • JES A309 Wednesday, February 19 • 5-6 p.m. • JES A309

   We all have the same amount of time in a day, but how we allocate it can make the difference between “I’m 3 hours late to the exam” versus “I’ve got plenty of time for that.” We’ll show you how to better use your time to make the most out of your every minute and find a balance between work and play.

3. Women in Tech Event
   Tuesday, February 4, 2014; 6-7pm; UTA 1.208

   SHE++ Documentary and Women in Tech Speakers – Sponsored by AT&T – food served hosted by the UT ASIS&T and AWIT (Advocating for Women in Technology)
   UT School of Information, UTA Building, 1st Floor, Room 1.208
   Please RSVP at this link: https://www.eventbrite.com/e/shen-documenary-and-women-in-technology-speakers-tickets-9836240460

   Details:
   She++: The Documentary (12 min: TV-14 DL) energetically proclaims ‘Hello, World’ after following smart, creative, and trailblazing technologists hard at work in hi-tech. This short documentary collects research and inspirational pieces of Silicon Valley’s unsung heroes to galvanize us to explore our potential as ‘femengineers’. Written and directed by recent Stanford University good girls gone geek, Ayna Agarwal and Ellora Israni.

   After the documentary, we will have local women speak about their experiences working in the hi-tech industry:
   Sara Haynes, Director, Product Management, PeopleAdmin
   Katherine Cranford, Knowledge Management/Taxonomy, Dell
   Kimmie Farrington, Data Scientist, Clockwork Solutions
   Andrea Richeson, COO and User Experience Director, TradeMark Media
   Courtney Jeffries, Product Manager, Indeed

Klein, PhD, Associate Vice Present For Research, Associate Director of Energy Institute, UT Austin; and Fred C. Beach, PhD, Assistant Director of Policy Studies, UT Austin

6. EVS Transfer Information
   Applications are due March 7th

   The Environmental Science (EVS) degree program at The University of Texas at Austin brings together Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science degrees from the College of Natural Sciences, the College of Liberal Arts, and the Jackson School of Geosciences. EVS is small, restricted, and very competitive, and focuses on science, including calculus, chemistry, biology, geology, and physics.

Getting in to the EVS Program

Internal Transfer Factors

EVS accepts internal transfer applications (from • students currently enrolled at UT) each spring for program entry the following fall. About 10-15% of the EVS cohort comes from • internal transfers. That means about 5-7 The applicant’s grades in basic science course sequence of Calculus (M 408K, M 408N, or M 408C), Chemistry (CH 301) and Biology (BIO 311C); The applicant’s overall grade point average at the university and any applicable transfer hours; students per year. EVS typically receives 40-50 applications for those spots.
• Applications are available on the EVS Program website at www.esi.utexas.edu/EVS. No late applications will be accepted.
The difficulty of the applicant’s course load, any course repetitions, and proven mathematical ability; The applicant’s interest in environmental science and in the EVS Program; and The applicant’s previous lab or field experience, and any environmentally-related volunteer work.

Internships and Employment

1. Baylor College of Medicine Institute
Applications due February 5th

The National School of Tropical Medicine (NSTM) at Baylor College of Medicine is the first school in the United States solely committed to addressing the world’s most pressing tropical disease issues. Our school aspires to unify tropical and infectious disease activities across the Texas Medical Center and establish links and collaborations across the state of Texas, the United States and internationally through interdisciplinary efforts to enhance the education, translational research & development, policy, and advocacy and alleviate these global health burdens.

This intensive two-week course, held on Baylor College of Medicine campus in Houston and at the heart of the Texas Medical Center will introduce you to the field of tropical medicine through explorations of global health, epidemiology, public health, infectious diseases, parasitic disease and neglected tropical diseases.

Over the two weeks you will participate in seminars with leading experts in these fields and visit facilities conducting cutting-edge research in the field.

Whether you are considering a career in medicine, research, public health, this two-week course will give you the experiences and information you need to make the right decision.

Summer 2014: June 16-27
Curriculum

The faculty of NSTM, Baylor College of Medicine faculty and affiliated institutions within the Texas Medical Center possess a wealth of knowledge and experience. The Tropical Medicine Summer Institute has been structured to give you a broad overview of the field.

Research/Field Experience Presentations
Throughout the Institute you will have the opportunity to hear individuals actively involved in research on tropical diseases around the world present their findings and discuss their experiences in the field.

Parasitology Laboratory
Beyond the classroom, you will gain experience and develop skills in the laboratory. You will learn the techniques necessary to identify vectors of parasitic disease gain the skills required to conduct laboratory work in resource-limited settings.

Application Process
Tuition for the Introduction to Tropical Medicine Summer Institute is $1,938.75. This does not include living expenses.

   Research and Volunteering

1. The Undergraduate Research Awards
   Applications are due June 2nd

   The University Honors Center is pleased to share The Undergraduate Awards, an opportunity for undergraduate students to have their best research essays or special projects recognized and published as part of a program celebrating top students from around the world. We encourage you to share this information with interested students and faculty in your department.

   The Undergraduate Awards recognize the world’s top undergraduate research projects from a variety of academic disciplines spanning the humanities, sciences, and visual arts. Open to final and penultimate year undergraduates, students are invited to submit research essays or special projects completed as part of their coursework that have received a grade of A and present fresh ideas and new arguments. Winning students will have their work published in the Undergraduate Awards Journal and be invited to attend the UA Summit—a 3 day conference in Dublin, Ireland.
A sample announcement for your website or newsletter is attached, as well as template for announcement to departmental faculty members.

Students should visit www.utexas.edu/ugs/uhc/awards/undergraduate.
