Scholarships

1. US Fulbright Summer

The US-UK Fulbright Commission has opened the applications for the summer 2014 institutes. These are fully-funded summer programs which provide the opportunity for US undergraduates (aged over 18), with at least two years of undergraduate study left to complete, to visit the UK on a three, four, five or six week academic and cultural summer programme. The Fulbright Commission covers the cost of airfare, tuition and fees, accommodation, and meals. In addition, they provide a small daily allowance.

Here’s a link to the applications: http://www.fulbright-awards/exchanges-to-the-uk/undergraduates. The institutes are in England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales. There are nine different institutes to apply to over a range of programs and experiences.

2. CNS Continuing Students Scholarship

Deadline: April 15, 2014

The 2014-2015 College of Natural Sciences scholarships application is now available. The common application is used to award college-level scholarships as well as the Health Professions Scholarships (for pre-medical students) and Out-of-State Tuition Waivers. Current CNS students can access the online application at https://www.utexas.edu/cns/scholar.

In addition to the online application, students must submit at least one (1) faculty letter of recommendation. Students may have up to two faculty letters submitted on their behalf, however only one is required. Applications will not be considered complete until at least one letter of recommendation has been received. Instructions on who are eligible to write letters of recommendation and how to submit them can be found on the application.

3. Armed Forces Scholarship
The Army offers one of the most generous and comprehensive scholarships in the Health Care Field. It is called the F. Edward Hebert Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program (HPSP). Research and Volunteering

1. Junior Fellows
Application due March 21st

The Junior Fellows Program was begun in 1959 by Harry Ransom as a means of encouraging academic excellence in the College of Arts and Sciences. At that time it was essentially an honor society to which students were elected at the end of their freshman year. Over the years, the Junior Fellows has evolved into a society of juniors and seniors from the University at large who are engaged in independent research projects under the direction of members of the faculty.

Fellows are required to attend meetings of the group, held every other week in both the fall and spring semesters. Besides project presentations, meetings feature discussions led by eminent scholars from on and off campus. Fellows have the opportunity to participate in field trips, seminars, and other academic activities. It is possible to earn academic credit for work done as a Junior Fellow, by enrolling in the appropriate conference course with the supervising professor. For example, Humanities and Plan II majors usually use their senior theses as their Junior Fellows projects. Students pursuing Special Honors in their major use the honors thesis number. Other non-honors courses are also available, for example ARH 376, E 367C, CH 475K, RTF 336. Fellows should register for the course that is approved by their advisers, fits into their degree plans, and has the right format for the chosen topic. Funds are available to assist Fellows with expenses involved in their research.

Application is open to any qualified student from any program on campus who will have completed 60 hours prior to the Fall semester. Junior Fellows normally have a GPA of at least 3.75, but outstanding students whose abilities are manifested in other ways should not hesitate to apply. Although administered by the College of Liberal Arts, the program is open to all qualified students on campus. Many students from outside Liberal Arts are presently members.

For more information contact Dr. Larry Carver (carver@austin.utexas.edu) in the Liberal Arts Honors Office by email or phone at 471-3458.

2. The Undergraduate Research Awards
Applications are due June 2nd

The University Honors Center is pleased to share The Undergraduate Awards, an opportunity for undergraduate students to have their best research essays or special projects recognized and published as part of a program celebrating top students from around the world. We encourage you to share this information with interested students and faculty in your department.

The Undergraduate Awards recognize the world's top undergraduate research projects from a variety of academic disciplines spanning the humanities, sciences, and visual arts. Open to final and penultimate year undergraduates, students are invited to submit research essays or special projects completed as part of their coursework that have received a grade of A and present fresh ideas and new arguments. Winning students will have their work published in the Undergraduate Awards Journal and be invited to attend the UA Summit—a 3 day conference in Dublin, Ireland.

A sample announcement for your website or newsletter is attached, as well as template for announcement to departmental faculty members.

Students should visit www.utexas.edu/ugs/uhc/awards/undergraduate.

3. Friar Society Centennial Teaching Fellowship Nomination

The Friar Society, the university’s oldest and most prestigious honor society, is now accepting nominations for the 2014 Friar Centennial Teaching Fellowship (FCTF).

This Fellowship, which is awarded annually to one outstanding undergraduate professor, is the largest undergraduate faculty award at the university with an annual award of $25,000.

We invite you to nominate a professor who is deserving of this honor. The nomination form is available online at The Friar Centennial Teaching Fellowship Nomination Form. Please note that only tenured or tenure-track faculty who teach at least one undergraduate course this semester are eligible to receive the FCTF.

Please submit all nominations through the link by Friday, March 21, 2014. Late submissions will not be considered. Nominations may also be sent to 2014FCTF@gmail.com.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact us at jordan.metoyer@gmail.com or kennon.kasischke@gmail.com. We look forward to receiving your nominations!

4. Catalyst Submissions

Check out the catalyst: utcatalyst.blogspot.com!

Are you interested in getting published in a diverse, student-run publication? Are you doing exciting things in the lab, volunteering, or just daily life? Do you have a topic you're passionate or knowledgeable about? Are you part of an organization with a great mission and want to reach out to the CNS? If you answered yes to any of these questions, please submit ideas, questions, and articles to nsc.catalyst.chair@gmail.com and let us publish your story!

5. Department Chair Luncheon

Friday, March 28 at 1PM, SAC 1.106

Join the CNS Department Chairs for a lunch hosted by the Natural Sciences Council’s Student-Faculty Committee. Meet and talk to the leaders of our college while enjoying a free lunch! No RSVP.
