

Udall Undergraduate Scholarship 2024

Campus Deadline: February 2, 2024

National Deadline: March 6, 2024

Are you working towards positive solutions to environmental challenges or to issues impacting Indian country? Have you demonstrated your commitment to one of these areas through public service? Do you inspire and motivate others to take action? Are you committed to making a difference through civility and consensus building? If you answered “yes” to these questions, the Udall Scholarship may be right for you.

The Udall Foundation awards scholarships to college sophomores and juniors for leadership, public service, and commitment to issues related to Native American nations or to the environment. The Udall scholarship honors the legacies of Morris Udall and Stewart Udall, whose careers had a significant impact on Native American self-governance, health care, and the stewardship of public lands and natural resources. The Udall Foundation anticipates awarding 55 scholarships of up to $7,000 each.

To be eligible for nomination for a Udall Scholarship, a student must:

1. Be a full-time sophomore or junior during the 2023-2024 academic year
 - Sophomore – two years of full-time undergraduate studies left beginning Fall 2024
 - Junior – one year of full-time undergraduate studies left beginning Fall 2024
2. Be a U.S. citizen, U.S. national, or U.S. permanent resident

Additional eligibility considerations are listed and linked below:

- Tribal Policy
For Native Americans and Alaska Natives working on an array of policy issues in Indian country
- Native Health Care
For Native Americans and Alaska Natives pursuing health-related careers
- Environment
For undergraduates interested in conservation and environmental issues

From <https://www.udall.gov/OurPrograms/Scholarship/Scholarship.aspx>

Nomination Process

The University of Texas at Austin can nominate up to eight students for the Udall Scholarship. Four nominations are for the applicants in the tribal policy and/or Native health care categories and four nominations are for applicants whose careers will benefit the environment.

Interested students will need to complete the Udall online application consisting of the items listed below. The College of Natural Sciences will use these to determine the University's nominees.

- An 11-question application
- An 800-word essay related to the Udall Foundation's core values
- Transcripts for all college coursework
- Three letters of recommendation that speak to your leadership, public service and academic achievements
- Additional documentation is required for applicants in tribal public policy and health care, and for U.S. Permanent Residents

Students should send the following information to the CNS Scholarship Coordinator at scholarships@cns.utexas.edu in order to receive access to the Udall online application:

1. First and Last Name
2. Email Address
3. Field of Study – Environment, Health Care, Tribal Public Policy
4. Nationality – U.S. Citizen, U.S. National, Permanent Resident
5. Grade Level – Junior, Sophomore

Applicants should have all items submitted and/or uploaded to the Udall online application system by the internal campus deadline.

The campus deadline is FEBRUARY 2, 2024 (11:59PM CT).

Questions? Contact scholarships@cns.utexas.edu.

From <https://www.udall.gov/OurPrograms/Scholarship/Scholarship.aspx>